Got a Question?
- Visit the NASN staff at the Attendee Service Desk (Lobby Level) or stop by the Hospitality Desk in the same area.
- Ask an NASN staff member, officer, or board of director. Check for name tags or ribbons identifying these individuals.

What’s in My Conference Bag?
- A Conference Program that includes a detailed agenda, poster presentation line up, schedule-at-a-glance, hotel maps, general information, and more.
- Wireless Internet and Mobile App Instructions
- Evaluation Site Instructions
- Live Streaming Details
- Exhibit Hall Passport
- Vendor Goodies

What’s in My Registration Envelope?
- Attendee Badge – please wear this at all times
- Optional Tickets including preconference tickets – these are attached to your badge
- Ribbons – if you are missing ribbons, stop by the Attendee Service Desk
- Personalized bookstore order form – use this to expedite your visit to the bookstore

Session Seating
With the exception of preconference day, seating is available on a first-come/first-served basis, allowing all attendees an equal opportunity to attend the session(s) of their choice, and is limited to the capacity of the meeting room. NOTE: Meeting room capacity is listed in each session description. Please arrive early to assure a seat.

Eventssential Conference App
Be sure to use the Mobile App! Instructions are included in your conference materials. With it, you can browse the schedule, create your own schedule, add your own appointments, flag exhibits to visit, receive conference notifications, message other attendees, and more.

Networking Tips
- Attend the Poster Presentation session and meet with poster authors while earning up to 3 CNE hours (authors scheduled to accompany their poster on Thursday only).
- Ask attendees about their ribbons or be willing to introduce yourself to meet new friends! You’ll be glad you did!
- The wipe boards scattered throughout the conference hall can be used to contact fellow attendees.
- Attend a Special Interest Group (SIG) Meeting on the afternoon of June 30th.
- Take advantage of the First Timers’ Orientation to meet attendees just like you!
